By your signature, you acknowledge to have read, understood and consented to the following:

- You authorise P+, former DIP to obtain relevant information about your previous pension scheme.
- Your previous pension scheme is discontinued, and the transferred amount is used for increasing the pension benefits that you are entitled to in P+, former DIP.
- If your previous pension scheme includes a retirement sum, a supplementary lump sum or a term life annuity, they may be converted into one or more of the pension products that P+, former DIP offers.
- You must be aware if your previous pension scheme ensures you a cover or pension benefits which are not transferred to your pension scheme in P+, former DIP, particularly if you are ill, working in a job on flexible terms or the like.
- If your previous pension scheme includes an interest or benefit guarantee, this guarantee will no longer apply and not be transferred to P+, former DIP.
- If you have appointed a specific beneficiary in your previous pension scheme, this appointment is discontinued and replaced by the beneficiaries appointed in your existing scheme in P+, former DIP.
- Your earliest pension age may change.
- Your possibilities for terminating your pension scheme in P+, former DIP prematurely against a cash payment may be limited. If your previous pension scheme includes strict rules for prematurely termination, these rules are transferred to your pension scheme in P+, former DIP.
- The transferred pension scheme becomes subject to the same terms and conditions for interest payment as your existing pension scheme in P+, former DIP. This means that your lifelong pension is subject to a deposit interest rate, and a possible annuity certain, endowment policy or retirement insurance are subject to market rate.
- P+, former DIP may charge a fee of DKK 1,000 for the transfer. The ceding company may charge a transfer fee, a withdrawal penalty or another fee which may reduce your savings if they are transferred.
- The transferred pension scheme becomes subject to P+, former DIP's insurance terms etc. in force at any time.
